Country music legend, Tracy Byrd, is coming to Afton in concert at the Star Valley High School auditorium on Saturday, September 16. Doors open at 6:30 and the music begins at 7:30.

It's rare to have a star of such notoriety come to a small town in Southwest Wyoming, but it's true that he is coming and has prepared a show that he hopes will appeal to country music fans for miles.

Duke Dance, with the SVI Radio Network, caught up with Byrd for an interview, and commented on the fact that a performer of Byrd's popularity was uncommon on Star Valley stages. Dance posed the question out of the gates in the interview. "When it was announced that you were coming, there were people who thought it was a scam. I want to hear it from your mouth, Tracy. Are you coming to Afton for real?"

"I am coming to Afton, Wyoming," Byrd responded with a resonant chuckle in his easy Texan drawl. "We know country music fans are in the small towns, so we are gon' bring it to ya."

People who love Byrd's style of music may be wondering what he has been working on since the 90's, but he's been taking the music to fans far and wide for all but three of the years since 2000.

"Back in '09, I got off the road for about three years," Byrd explained. "I'd been at it for 20

"Music is kind of magical, and that's the way we feel about it, and we try to just deliver the songs with that same passion." Tracy Byrd years at that point, so I took a well needed break. I really didn't know when or if I would get back to touring, but I got to missing it a lot. It kinda gets in your blood and you get used to performing live and seeing all the fans. So, we went back out on the road and we are almost working like we used to with about 100 shows a year and enjoying the heck out of it. You know, 90's country is kind of

on this resurgence right now and has been for the last couple of years, and so, just a lot of fun. We have been having a blast."

Byrd put out a studio album, "All American Texan," in 2016 and recently contributed to an album live from Billy Bob's Texas, which is the world's largest honky tonk, located in Fort Worth.

His new band, gathered in 2013, works out of his home in Beaumont, Texas, and features steel guitar and fiddle as a full country and western band. But, of course, the music is the same.

"It's still all those hits that we were lucky enough to have, and it's still that same style, that Texas and Country and Swing style," Byrd assured. "Our goal is the same, and that's just to get out there and have folks have a good time, and have an emotional up and down night with the music depending on what song we are playing, and just really take them on a little trip, you know? Music is kind of magical and that's the way we feel about it and we try to just deliver the songs with that same passion."

Byrd loves all his songs, but a few are his favorites, mostly because they are meaningful to him, but partly because they bring joy to his fans.

"Watermelon Crawl' I love to perform just for the fact that people love it so much," chuckled Byrd. "They start screaming for it as soon as we come out and they don't let up until we finally do the song later in the show, so that one is still pretty special. Then, there's a song called 'Heaven in my Woman's Eyes,' which is one that I really like personally, and then, of course, 'Keeper of the Stars' [was] song of the year in 1995 and still is such a big song in people's lives, so that one is special too, and always will be."

Byrd wants to see his fans, and invites them personally to be there on Saturday. "Come out if [you] love country music and come out because we are coming to Afton and it's real and it's true and we are really gon' be there. We would just love to see you. We wanna have a great crowd and we wanna entertain folks, and we just look forward to being there."

Library Card Sign up Month

◆ Do you have a library card?

By October Dunford
Manager,
Lincoln County Library

Believe it or not, there are people out there who do not have a library card! That sounds like a crazy statement to some of us, because I couldn't imagine not having one. The library has so much to offer, that by not having a card, you are really missing out. Now, some of you may be asking yourself, "What exactly does the library offer other than books?" I am very excited to answer this question!

First off, let me tell you that September is National Library Card Sign-Up Month. I was lucky to be born into a family that used the public library on a regular basis, and I've kept up that habit my entire life, even to the point of working full time in a public library.

Now, let me talk to you about why you need a library card. Of course, there are a million reasons I could list, but for the sake of space, I will keep it brief and just list a few of my favorites.

Many book lovers would agree that there's nothing quite like turning the pages of an old book. However, sometimes it's just easier (and lighter) to download books onto your digital device. With a library card linked to apps like Libby (found at linclib.org), you can borrow and download countless ebooks, eaudiobooks, and more.

Our online database offers language lessons. Yes, you read that right! If you've always wanted to learn a new language but can't afford the classes, check out our "Pronunciator" database. With a library card you can access our online learning program with over 163 different languages to choose from.

No matter your profession, it's never too late to improve existing skills or gain new ones. Learning platforms like "LearningExpress Library" are available 24/7 and you can also sign up for a free account using your library card. Enjoy the thousands of online courses in fields such as web development, education, media production, and business, all from the comfort of your own home.

Don't forget to check out your local library for specific library programs in your area. We offer storytime, after school programs, bookwalks and much, much more. For more information on what the Lincoln County Library System has to offer you stop in or give us a call. You can also check out our website at linclib.org. We are looking forward to seeing you at the library.

Book Review

◆ "Professional Troublemaker: The Fear-Fighter Manual" by Luvvie Ajayi Jones.

By Sarah Stang
Library Assistant,
Star Valley Branch Library

Though we live in a modern world, the majority of humans make decisions based on emotions rather than logical reasoning. Is this a bad thing? Not entirely. The average person makes thousands of decisions every single day that emotions, such as fear, play a huge role in.

For some decisions, fear can be a very beneficial factor, like when driving a car we want to avoid an accident. However, fear can be very negative if it keeps us from living the life we want, like when we stay at a job we hate because we fear not having steady income.

That's why I love "Professional Troublemaker: The Fear-Fighter Manual" by Luvvie Ajayi Jones! It's all about challenging those things that hold us back from being the person we want to be, and living the life we want in the way we want, without becoming a bully or narcissist.

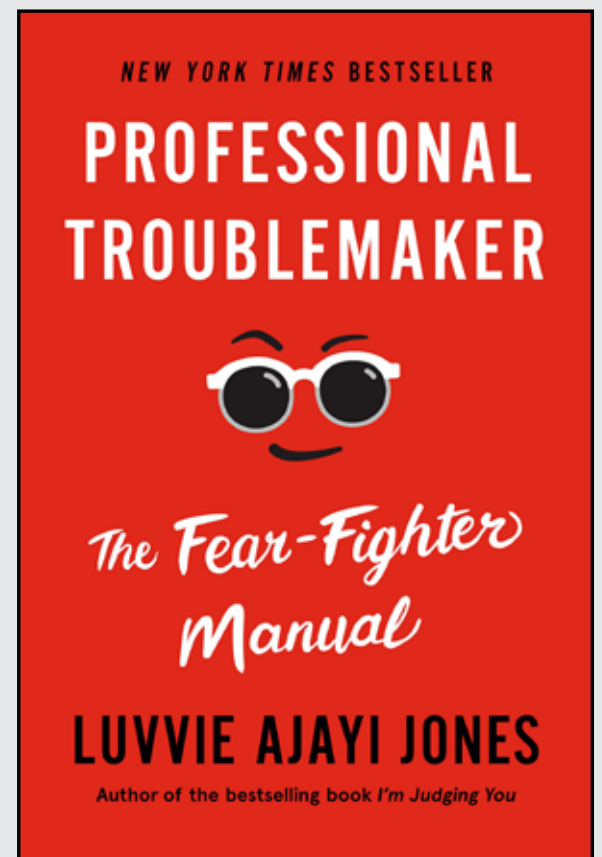

The author, Luvvie Ajayi Jones, defines a troublemaker as "someone who critiques the world, the shoddy systems, and the people who refuse to do better." Yet, a troublemaker is not someone who does things simply because they want to rock the boat, get their way, or cause pain to others.

I absolutely love the way the author's voice and speaking style comes through her writing. Colorful, gritty and humorous, the way actual people speak. For someone like me who has never heard Ms. Jones speak, I can clearly imagine her voice through the writing. By using her personal experiences she demonstrates how fear can drive our decisions. For example, she lost her accent after moving to the US because she didn't want to sound different from the other kids.

The book is divided into three sections (Be, Say, Do) which have subcategories so that the content is easy to understand and absorb. She offers questions and exercises to practice self-reflection so that we can better understand ourselves and find the courage to do and say the things that we want. This includes having someone else's back and not hiding in the background. If someone says something we agree with, or disagree with, we should speak up. If we see someone being mistreated, we should step in.

The purpose of this book is to understand that there is no way to get rid of fear. It is a very important emotion to embrace, but we do not have to be ruled by it. "Professional Troublemaker: The Fear-Fighter Manual" by Luvvie Ajayi Jones can be found in book format at the Lincoln County Library System. It is also available on Libby as an eaudiobook.

Horsley takes 4A West crown; SVHS teams qualify for State

ATTA' BOY: Head Golf Coach Kelly Fullmer discusses green-side strategy with junior Sean Stout. Stout was named to the all-conference list after placing seventh overall at the 4A conference championship tournament in Casper last Thursday and Friday. "Sean has been consistent and a reliably solid performer for us all season," said Fullmer.

GREEN MILE: PJ Horsley hits an approach to an elevated green. Horsley recently won the individual championship at the 4A West Conference Championship in Casper after shooting 75 on day one in high winds at Casper's 3 Crowns course. "PJ's ball-striking has been one of the big reasons for his success this season," said head golf coach Kelly Fullmer ◆ State Golf is this weekend in Rock Springs.

By Dahl Erickson
SVI Media

Having to qualify for the State tournament, the SVHS Golf teams were up to the task as they battled the 3-Crowns Golf Course in Casper as well as the elements to earn their trip.

It was a windy, wet and unpleasant experience with junior PJ Horsley winning the 4A West Conference crown by shooting a 75 on the first day. The second day of competition was canceled.

Fellow junior, Sean Stout, earned All-Conference honors as well with a top-ten finish.

"I'm not sure people appreciate how special it is that PJ Horsley won the individual conference championship," stated Head Coach Kelly Fullmer. "There are only a handful of players, teenage or adult, in the state competing at his level. He played some truly excellent golf under some truly grueling conditions in Casper."

The conditions included an hour-and-a-half lightning delay and a near-dark finish. Strong winds were moving the balls on the putting surface.

According to Fullmer, Day Two at the Casper Municipal brought rain, wind and a wind-chill of 38 degrees.

"As the field fell apart, PJ increased his lead from day one by several strokes before officials called off the day's event due to weather," he said. "Sean Stout also finished all-conference for us. He has been so steady all season, and on 3-Crowns he fired his first round in the 70's outside our home course in his high school career. His seventh overall finish helped us qualify for state and complemented PJ's 75 nicely. The rest of the boys teams played well, led by Brigham Ordyna's 88. Taken altogether, we placed 3rd out of six teams with the top four teams going to state."

The Lady Braves did not have any All-Conference performances, but they qualified as a team to play this week at State.

"That was our goal," Fullmer added. "The conditions affected their scoring, no doubt, but it speaks to their toughness and consistency that we broke 300 as a team on Day 1 and finished in the top four. I'm hoping we'll get their best golf at state to finish above some of the teams that edged us out at conference."

According to Fullmer, the State course will be hosted at White Mountain Golf Course this Friday and Saturday.

We will play a practice round at White Mountain Golf course in Rock Springs on Thursday of this week before playing the state tournament on Friday and Saturday.

The SVHS Cross-Country team ran at the Chief Nation Invitational in Ethete this past Saturday as hosted by Wyoming Indian High School.

The team was hampered by injury and illness but the varsity boys still placed second as a team with both junior varsity teams winning their respective divisions.

“We had a little sickness going through the team this week,” replied Head Coach Ty Draney. “But we are proud of how they competed today.”

Sophomore Habtamu Wetzel was second overall, just three seconds off the pace set by defending 3A champ, Owen Burnett. Jase Burton also finished in under 17 minutes.

The program will host the SVHS Invite this Friday at Star Valley View Golf Course in Afton.

The SVHS Invite took place for the volleyball program this past weekend with not just regional teams in attendance, but also both squads from Gillette.

At the end of the day, the Lady Braves had a very successful weekend with win against every school except Campbell County.

This week is a busy one as the program played in Sugar City, Idaho on Tuesday. Results of that match were not available at the print deadline.

The Lady Braves will be in Cody on Friday night to take on the Fillies with a 6 pm start time and then in Riverton for a 1 pm start on Saturday afternoon.

Josh Frazier will be streaming the two weekend matches with a watch link at svinews.com.

Diggers bury Braves 34-7

◆ SVHS starts Wyoming play this Friday at 12:30 in the afternoon.

By Dahl Erickson
SVI Media

After a pair of wins over Idaho opponents to start the season, the Braves ran into the Sugar-Salem Diggers this past Friday in a 34-7 final.

The Diggers have advanced to the Idaho 3A championship game for the past four seasons and looked every bit the part of a team ready to make it five as they moved up and down the field against Star Valley.

"It's the reason we schedule the way we do," stated Head Coach McKay Young after the game. "We want to expose those things that we need to work on and we were certainly shown a lot of things tonight."

The Braves fell behind early 7-0 but were able to answer with a good-looking passing game that found Chase Stewart in the first quarter and a 7-7 tie after McKell Merritt's PAT.

After that, the Braves were able to move the ball but were unable to find the end zone again. Conversley, the Diggers running game got better as the game wore on. The home team scored just before half and then used an impressive drive to open the third quarter to compile a 28-7 deficit for the Braves.

This week will be a return to Wyoming competition as Star Valley will travel to Riverton to face the Wolverines who have opened up their season with a trio of blow-out losses. RHS has been outscored 133-20 thus far.

Due to a lack of officials, the game against the Wolverines has been moved up to 12:30 in the afternoon this Friday. It will follow a 10 am sophomore game.

SVI Media will be streaming the varsity game starting at approximately 12 noon with the First Bank of Wyoming Countdown to Kickoff. Watch links can be found at SVInews.com.

WHAT YOUR KIDS ARE EXPOSED TO IN CHILDHOOD WILL AFFECT THEM THE REST OF THEIR LIVES.

Studies show that damage from the sun to a child's skin can actually increase the odds that they will develop skin cancer as adults. In fact, it is estimated that 80% of a person's total lifetime sun exposure occurs in the first 18 years of life. So protect your children. Keep them out of the sun during midday. Cover them up. Give them hats. And teach them to use sunscreen. For more information, call 1-888-462-DEEM, or visit www.aad.org.

FOCUS ON THE FAMILY

The family is not just a passing political platform. It is a building block for a strong society. But as pressures on the home increase, families need support and encouragement.

Listen to Focus on the Family each morning during the Weekday Wake-Up. (98.7fm 1210am)
