Practical Steps to Suicide Reduction

When

September 11th
6:30-8:00 PM

Where

Afton Community Center
150 S. Washington St. Afton, WY

Instructor

Chaplain Matt Ferguson
PROSPER Instructor

Matt is a PROSPER chaplain with 18 years in law enforcement chaplaincy, decades of crisis response experience, and former Chief of Chaplains for the U.S. Border Patrol.

Why It Matters

Leaders often see pain first. Suicide is not just mental illness—it is a spiritual and social crisis.

What You Will Learn

Learn simple, evidence-based steps to help in crisis—no clinical training needed

Who Should Attend

If others turn to you for support—faith leaders, teachers, coaches, community leaders—this training is for you. All are welcome.

What Will Be Discussed

Most who die by suicide aren't diagnosed with mental illness. Friends and family see the signs first—learn how to respond with care and reduce risk by up to 76%.
