

Read a book with a High School Student!

National Honor Society high schoolers are hosting an event for elementary students from Afton and Thayne elementaries to come read books and make friends with high school students.

Friday, Jan 30, from 8:30 to 10:30

This is a no-school day for elementary students

Star Valley High School

Parents are welcome to drop their children off or socialize in the Commons area
(High school students and elementary students will be in open groups, and SVHS faculty will monitor)

Refreshments will be provided!
